

Controller - Production Control

Mission and Main Objectives	To ensure the on-going stability of the Parts Control function.
Main Tasks & Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Operational Control of a number of Local & Global suppliers• Communication with external suppliers• Improvement activities within the supply base• Manage supply chain systems – MRP knowledge essential• Manage daily supply issues & inventory control• Project management & cost reduction initiatives• Manage transfer of supplier facilities
Additional Tasks and responsibilities (include team management, if any)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Project manage new parts development for new model nominated suppliers• Flexibility towards short notice travel• People management / leadership skills
Function	Supply Chain Management
Site / Location of Position	United Kingdom – Sunderland
Legal Entity	(NMUK) Nissan Motor Manufacturing (UK) Ltd - Sunderland, UK
Type of Contract	Permanent
Background & Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Supervisory experience preferable• Educated to degree level (or equivalent)• Preferably 2 years' experience in a Production Control environment• Must be fully computer literate as all systems are PC & mainframe based• Excellent written & verbal skills – Good organisation & planning skills• Communications & negotiations skills• Foreign language skills would be an advantage• Knowledge of production processes• Ability to communicate on technical issues
Minimum Education Required	Bachelor's Degree
Target Starting Date	01-Jan-2012
Salary	£30K – 40K depending on experience

To apply: <http://nissan-recruitment.eu/en/all-offers/>